

Professional profile of Domenico Netti

Founder and President of SCM Academy.

He is currently president of Logistic 3PL company Ab Logistica. Previously he has been Chief Executive Officer of CEPL logistic operator. He has been for several years Director of Logistics at Lavazza and previously, in the same company he was a marketing manager; at the beginning of his career he was an Operational Research analyst in Fiat Group.

He has been president of several Logistics Associations: AILog (Italian Association of Logistics), ELMED (Mediterranean Logistics Association; currently he is Vice President), Logistics Associations in Belarus, Moldova, Romania, Bulgaria. Moreover he has been member of the board at ELA (European Logistics Association) board.

He has held academic positions, receiving several awards, such as: Professor Honoris Causa at Universities of Brasov (Romania), Minsk (Belarus), and ATISO (Moscow); Professor and Graduate Honoris Causa at Moldova University; Member of Consultative Committee of Fourth Faculty of Polytechnic of Turin. Through SCM Academy is currently cooperating with MIIT State University of Moscow to implement a post lauream Master in logistics.

He has a degree in Computer Science at University of Turin.

Topics of training courses he can hold:

- Demand Management
- Design of Distribution Networks
- Automated Warehouses

Contact Information

- d.netti@scm-academy.net
- www.scm-academy.net
- LinkedIn: Domenico Netti
- Skype: domenico__netti

SCM Academy - Associazione senza fini di lucro

www.scm-academy.it - info@scm.academy

Codice Fiscale: 92050040010

Partita Iva: 11215360014